

THE SUBWAY SONG

words by Tom Lehrer

music: "M-O-T-H-E-R", by Theodore Morse (1915 - P.D.)
(original lyrics by Howard Johnson)

H is for my Alma Mater, Harvard

C is Central, next stop on the line

K is for the kozy Kendall station

C is Charles, that overlooks the brine

P is Park Street, busy Boston center

W is Washington, you see

Put them all together, they spell "HCKC-PW" (*)

Which is just about what Boston means to me.

(*) sound of throat-clearing and spitting

Historical note: This is a song that I wrote after I first came to Cambridge in 1943. When I first took the subway ride from Cambridge into Boston, I noticed that the subway stations on the line had this interesting feature.

Kendall has since been renamed Kendall/MIT.

Charles has since been renamed Charles/MGH.

Washington has since been renamed Downtown Crossing.
